Chaplains Summation and report

There has been some great work done by the Knights the last few months including Columbarium repairs and Coats for Kids and LAMB. It is very impactful for the parish, the Knights and the community. Father Carter reminds us that as Knights of Columbus, we are called on to be good men but also to grow in holiness. Please take time in December to remember your families, to be present to them, and to not get distracted by the preparations for the Christmas season.

Grand Knight's Report

1. Memorial Mass for deceased Knights and Columbiettes is November 20 at 6:15pm. Grand Knight will be reading the names of the Knights and Lucy Fiore will be reading the names for the Columbiettes.
2. In lieu of our meeting next month, we will have a Christmas potluck. We need someone to chair this and make up the menu and signup sheet. Pete volunteered to chair.
3. Recent work done includes repairs on the Columbarium (about 50 hours).
4. We received a negative review on our cleanup after the Octoberfest. We are now taking pictures of the rooms as we leave.
5. We send out a lot of prayer requests. We heard from Dave & Kathy Thomas; their granddaughter has surgery & it was very successful. They appreciate the prayers.

Financial Report -WFS Paul Lutgen

1. We donated to 3 seminarians over summer. Supreme Council has a program that they call RSVP (Refund Support Vocations Program) where for every $500 we donate to a seminarian, they give us $100 back. We were approved for $400 back.
2. Everyone will be getting a dues email from Mike in December.
